

Biblical and Theological Studies Faculty Position

College of the Ozarks is seeking applicants for a full-time faculty position in Biblical and Theological Studies at the rank of assistant or associate professor. Specific teaching assignments include the College's general education Christian worldview classes, as well as upper-division classes in theology and apologetics. A master's in theology is required; a Ph.D. in theology or apologetics is preferred. The starting date for this position is January 2026 or August 2026.

The successful candidate must embrace the College's Christ-centered mission and demonstrate excellence in teaching undergraduate students. This person will exhibit a commitment to serving as a mentor and positive role model for students, as well as a deep interest in the relationship of theological studies and a liberal arts curriculum. College of the Ozarks is a small (1,400 students), liberal arts, work-study college with a commitment to evangelical Christian faith and service located in southwest Missouri near Branson (www.cofo.edu). Send letter of application, CV, transcripts, and three letters of recommendation (including one from your pastor) to: Dr. Eric Bolger, Provost, PO Box 17, Point Lookout, MO 65726, or email aoliver@cofo.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
