

Part-Time Adjunct Instructor in Music — Strings (Violin, Viola, & Cello)

College of the Ozarks (C of O) is seeking applications for a part-time adjunct instructor of strings to teach in-person applied lessons and string-related music courses in the C of O music department. We are seeking an energetic musician with strong communication skills, substantial teaching experience, and a broad knowledge of string instruments.

Primary Teaching Responsibilities

- Applied lessons on violin, viola, & cello (approximately 10–15 students each week)
- Instrumental Methods-Strings: a laboratory course designed to teach the pedagogy and literature of the string family of instruments through practical application and illustration
- Instrumental Ensemble: performance of classical chamber music by an instrumental ensemble of 3 to 8 players

Additional Responsibilities

- Oversee the maintenance of the music department's string instruments and related equipment

Minimum Qualifications

- A bachelor's degree in music
- Applied string teaching experience (violin; minimum of five years)
- Ensemble performance experience

Preferred Qualifications

- A master's or doctorate degree in music
- Applied string teaching experience at the college level (violin, viola, & cello)
- Classroom teaching experience at the college level
- Ensemble leadership experience
- Experience maintaining string instruments and related equipment

College of the Ozarks is a Christian liberal arts-based college with a commitment to faith-based education. The campus is in Point Lookout, MO, near Branson. To apply, please address a letter of application to Dr. Susan DeWoody and send the letter and CV to Andrea Oliver at aoliver@cofo.edu. Review of applications begins immediately, with placement dependent upon credentials and current course needs.