

Residence Director Position

The College of the Ozarks is looking for a women's residence director. This is a full-time, live-in (12 month) professional position. The residence director will work closely with the Dean of Students and the Director of Residence Life to ensure that housing operations run accordingly for the hall. The applicant should encompass a biblical worldview with a desire to develop citizens of Christ-like character. The major responsibilities will consist of responding to immediate student issues and coordinating programming efforts that are aligned with the mission of the school. The successful candidate should possess excellent communication skills, a positive attitude, appropriate organizational skills, and relate well with the Academic, Vocational, Christian, Cultural, and Patriotic mission points of the College. In addition, the residence director will be assigned a secondary role as determined by the Dean of Students. The nature of this position requires some evening and weekend work hours. This position requires a background check. Please submit a resume/application to Vicki Wrosch in Human Resources, mail to Vicki Wrosch, College of the Ozarks, P.O. Box 17, Point Lookout, MO 65726, or email hr@cofo.edu. For full consideration, applications should be submitted by Friday, November 6, 2026; however, the position will remain open until filled.
